TOPIC: Parent Communication We reflected on various conversations where I had recommended taking a certain approach with parents and how those conversations had gone. We also focused on several particular, current cases being worked on. We discussed checking in with parents ahead of a milestone in a student's life, to express care to parents, as well as for the school to hear if there is any pertinent information that staff should know. Overall, principal sees how powerful these conversations with parents are and really makes a point of keeping parent contact constant and effective.
